Update from the last Newsletter,
Hi John,

I've made contact with a gentleman who manages the Japanese bureau in DFAT. As best I could I have given some background. I'm waiting on some clippings from the Courier to add some weight to the argument, and I'll send them on.

Nahoom Oh is not sure who would be the best person and which department would be most suitable, but he's going to look into it for me. She has mentioned that she has passed on my contact details in case there are any further questions.
