Goodbye Malcolm.. We said "Goodbye to Malcolm" last Friday June 24th at the Lobethal Lutheran church. We sang 2 numbers Abide with Me, and Guide me O thou Great Jehovah, Thank you for singing and forming the guard of honour as we left the church and outside. It was a fitting farewell. The large number attending came from the South East as the majority of Malcolm's working life was growing "Kentish potatoes" redskin variety in a BIG way. This is why we had a red ribbon as Malcolm promoted his redskin potatoes wherever he went. According to his Grandchildren (Young adults) who managed an evening at the Carlton Club after the funeral said "POP" would say "Boil em, smash em, fry em but above all "eat em," his potatoes. Thank you, Malcolm we will miss your smile. I passed on our condolences to Jan and the family at the function at the Carlton Club at Hahndorf on Friday evening where we could reflect over Malcom's life.

Peter Shaw ... Unfortunately Peter has passed away. He gave his ALL for the club in so many ways with his recitations, playing the bagpipes, and especially the MANAGER of the Coffee and Tea. His Funeral will be held at Kleeman's Funeral parlour Lobethal 10am next Tuesday 5th July. We will notify you of our involvement via email when we have heard from Susan. We all enjoyed his spontaneity, and thoughtfulness. We will miss you "buddy".
